Mercyful Fate, Last Rites

I'm surrounded by darkness,I'm dying in my bed I don't know if I'm going to survive I open my eyes,but it's so hard to see My Last Rites

I don't believe in heaven,I don' t believe in hell So save your god for someone else Or save him for yourself

In a flick of a second I think I saw a priest Listening to my breathing getting weaker all the time He's mumbling words I don't understand My Last Rites

I don't believe in heaven,I don' t believe in hell So save your god for someone else Or save him for yourself

Feeling colder,feeling low My blood still running,but running slow Oh no...I don't need no priest of yours...oh Christ I won't listen to another word from you Here I am dying and you act the fool

I wish you'd come a little closer So I can reach your cross and end your prayer here I don't believe in heaven,I don' t believe in hell So save your god for someone else Or save him for yourself
