

Meridene, Kill The Memory

The razor's dull, for far too long, I think it's time to celebrate cut off that hair, trim up that beard things are finally looking up so hit that town, it's finally yours no looking over shoulders anymore so buy that drink yeah return that wink there's nothing that can bring you down now she left town

You're finally free, to cut your teeth to kill the memory, of other things clean out your coffin, and start to breathe call off your haunting, relive the freeze

UNTIL IT ALL COMES CRAWLING BACK!!!

You stupid girl, why can't you cut another path out for yourself somehow follow roads, tarred and black not what I've been treading on can't you see, my fatal flaw I'm having problems with my letting go of things we said, of things I meant I offer you my heart up now cause it's all I've got, left to offer you

To kill the pain, of nights alone holding your t-shirt for the smell remembering pleasure, remembering hell remember I love you's long since killed

Remember under covers you said you'd hold on holding on to me so extra tight but I woke up right there in the morning you let go easily, let go of all of me
