

Metallica, Confusion

Wake to face the day
Grab this life and walk away
War is never done
Rub the patch and battle on
Make it go away
Please, make it go away

Confusion; all sanity is now beyond me
Delusion; all sanity is but a memory
My life - the war that never ends

Leave the battlefield
Yes, its horrors never heal
Coming home from war
Pieces don't fit anymore
Make it go away
Please, make it go away

Confusion; all sanity is now beyond me
Delusion; all sanity is but a memory
My life - the war that never ends

Father, please, come home
Shell shocked all I've known
Father, please, come home

Label him a 'deadwood soldier' now
Cast away and left to roam
Rapid is the road to sacrifice
Just takes longer to come home,
Come on!

Confusion; all sanity is now beyond me
Delusion; all sanity is but a memory
Crossfire ricochets inside me
Trapped in a memory forever
My life - the war that never ends
