

Metro Station, Comin' Around

Feelin' you comin' around You're breakin' me down
Move on, move on, move on
Come on, get out
Move on, move on, move on
Come on, get out
I keep talkin' cos I just need you to know
My motives were always to let you go
Your heart is pumpin', the beat fills the walls
This conversation is just to watch you fall
(You know)
I still turn you on
(You know)
This is your last chance to get some
Feelin' you comin' around You're breakin' me down
Move on, move on, move on
Come on, get out
Move on, move on, move on
Come on, get out
You hold your ground, come on give up this fight
The sun's down, so you let me stay the night
The room's quiet, the whispers in your ear
Will cause your body to somehow get so near
(To somehow get so near)
To somehow get so near
I won't talk, I'm in it just for this
These moments are somethin' I will miss
You shed a tear, there's a feeling down below
That makes pain somehow die so slow
(You know)
I'm getting you off
Feelin' you comin' around You're breakin' me down
Move on, move on, move on
Come on, get out
Move on, move on, move on
Come on, get out
Feelin' you comin' around You're breakin' me down
Move on, move on, move on
Come on, get out
Move on, move on, move on
Come on, get out
