Metro Station, Comin' Around

Feelin' you comin' around You're breakin' me down

Move on, move on, move on

Come on, get out

Move on, move on, move on

Come on, get out

I keep talkin' cos I just need you to know

My motives were always to let you go

Your heart is pumpin', the beat fills the walls

This conversation is just to watch you fall

(You know)

I still turn you on

(You know)

This is your last chance to get some

Feelin' you comin' around You're breakin' me down

Move on, move on, move on

Come on, get out

Move on, move on, move on

Come on, get out

You hold your ground, come on give up this fight

The sun's down, so you let me stay the night

The room's quiet, the whispers in your ear

Will cause your body to somehow get so near

(To somehow get so near)

To somehow get so near

I won't talk, I'm in it just for this

These moments are somethin' I will miss

You shed a tear, there's a feeling down below

That makes pain somehow die so slow

(You know)

I'm getting you off

Feelin' you comin' around You're breakin' me down

Move on, move on, move on

Come on, get out

Move on, move on, move on

Come on, get out

Feelin' you comin' around You're breakin' me down

Move on, move on, move on

Come on, get out

Move on, move on, move on

Come on, get out
