Michael Bublé (Michael Buble), Me & Mrs. You

I can't stand still I'm looking for something And that something is you

You can be my rainbow And I'll be your pot of gold But all that really matters Are the things that we do I do hope that one day they'll be a Me & Amp; Mrs. You

But I can't stand still I'm so excited, I just wanna scream I see you right before me And it's like a real good dream

But I want you to know something, Baby Yes, it's really true I do hope that one day they'll be a Me & Dry. Mrs. You

I can't stand still I'm looking for something And that something is you

You can be my rainbow And I'll be your pot of gold But all that really matters Are the things that we do I do hope that one day they'll be a Me & Dry Mrs. You
