

Michael Giles, Moving

Moving along
Moving on a holiday
Moving everyone
Moving far away

Where the ferryman
Sings to a feathery crowd
And they dance hand in hand
To an imaginary band

Moving away
Moving from the city air
Moving to the sea
Moving where the children play

In a castle of sand
Kings and Queens of the land
Sign their names and proclaim
The dirty rascal's lasting fame

The ferryman sings
To a feathery crowd
And they dance hand in hand
To an imaginary band
