Michael Learns To Rock, Laugh And Cry

(Jascha Richter/Mats Berntoft/Moh Denebi)

Listen baby this is the deal I need a minute to tell you how I feel I've got this one thing on my mind Like an obsession it's keeping me spellbound

I have to get just a little bit more Won't let this moment walk right out the door I feel your presence within miles And when I'm with you I see the sunrise

(Chorus)

So baby hold me close to you right now I'm only waiting for you to teach me how To laugh and cry to live and die In your arms tonight
So baby show me how to laugh and cry

The world around us is moving so fast We've gotta live love and try to make it last From this moment the colour is red And what my heart wants is one road ahead.

(Chorus)

So baby hold me close to you right now I'm only waiting for you to teach me how To laugh and cry to live and die

'Cause baby within my heart You are my forever shining star Where ever the road may lead In you I will believe Forever and ever

(Chorus)

So baby show me how to laugh and cry How to laugh and cry
