

Michael Schenker Group, The Storm

Kiss it all to the wind
It's never goodbye my friend
I'll see you again
Remember this life is just a game
You keep me holding on Reaching for morning till the lightning comes
And for the life that's ahead
Though no one know what's forever there
No more darkness
I can't exist in the light
Now I know I'm not the only one
On this uphill climb

Carry on
We've come so far
Did we have to wait so long
We were almost there
You may need someone to talk to
It's never too late to find
We all need someone
To lean on sometime
We have weathered the storm

Remember the silence
It's important to you
Remember the darkness my friend
It's the same as the fool
Remember your will
It's with you till morning
Till the life's reborn

Carry on
We've come so far
We had to wait so long
We are almost there
You may need someone to talk to
It's never too late to find
We all need someone
To lean on sometime
We have weathered the storm
