

Michael Stanley, Nothing's Gonna Change My Mi

You packed your bags and left today
You turned your back and walked away

You tell me--that your heart is blind
You tell me--that you've changed your mind...

(CHORUS:)
Nothing's gonna change my mind
--not now, not ever
And, even if it takes my life
--I'll wait, forever

Why won't you stop, and please explain
What makes you think that it's so plain

You tell me--love is just a lie
But tell me--'bout these tears you cry...

(CHORUS:)
Nothing's gonna change my mind
--not now, not ever
And, even if it takes my life
--I'll wait, forever
Nothing's gonna change my mind
--not now, not ever
And, even if it takes my life
--I'll wait, forever
