

Michael Stanley, Someone Like You

Vanished
before your eyes
and he took all your dreams alive
Last stops and all night rides to that place
where all the lonely hide...

(CHORUS:)

Stop running your heart around don't let it all get you down...
Don't you know it's so easy--it's so easy if you're lookin' for a place to run well, I'm waiting--I'm waiting I'm waiting to be the one...

I ain't no winner-- I'm no 'miracle-come-true' but I've waited so long now, baby-- for someone like you...

Someone like you, like you, like you--
--all my life, oh, it's true now, baby...

Wanting
what you can't have Praying
for what you need
And when you cry out in the night not knowing what to do Who's the one--that shows up to pull you through?
