

Michal, Dreaming Of You

Ten bizarre dreams are living in my head
They de-evolve, just won't resolve
They keep on swarming and hovering low
Bubbling slow

I removed myself from myself
Seen every perspective from every light
Still I feel my mind's own bondage
It's so hard to be honest

It's such a great insurmountable torrent
When I find myself torn in two
I realized I can't ignore it
And again I am faced with you

Oh, we are so perfect for each other
Who am I to fight my very nature?
Ooh, never wanted something this way ever

And I'm dreaming, dreaming of you
You're just too good to be true
Oh, I have been waiting to bloom
Dreaming, dreaming of you

You're a mirror for everything
In this world that makes my heart stop
The rays from your heart center fill me
With laser spot light

And it's a great indescribable torment
When I find my self without you
I think we are co-dependant
And again I am feeling blue

I just want to kiss with you forever
Love your smile brings San Diego weather
Ooh, it's not like I am trying to be clever

But I'm dreaming, dreaming of you
You're just too good to be true
I have been waiting to bloom
Dreaming, dreaming of you

Dreaming of you
You're just too good to be true
I have been waiting to bloom
Dreaming of you

Ohh, ohh, ohh. Ohh, oohhh.

You are the secret I keep so well, never tell

Dreaming, dreaming of you
You're just too good to be true
I have been waiting to bloom
Dreaming, dreaming of you

Dreaming, dreaming of you
You're just too good to be true
I have been waiting for you
Dreaming, dreaming of you

Dreaming of you
You're just too good to be true

I have been waiting to bloom
Dreaming, dreaming of you

Dreaming of you
You're just too good to be true
I have been waiting for you
Dreaming of you
Dreaming, dreaming of you
