

Michale Graves, So Don't You Know

so don't you know? there's one less loader hanging by a rope you should have listened
so don't you know?
i knew that there was something i forgot
that i just had to let you know wide awake and dreaming i'm dreaming if you i can't move i'm dieing
so don't you know?
one wired waste of want and weeks that never end!
maybe you've counted?
so don't you know?
i knew there was something i forgot
that i just had to let you know
so don't you know?
