

Michele Morrone, Another Day

There was a time, when I felt inside
Love and hate, but you were mine
You were the only reason to make
My eyes smile over and over again
And now I just feel, this fear is eating me inside now

If you believed in my eyes
We would've had another day
And you just see me inside
I swear we would have another day
Another day
Hmm, I swear we would have another day

And I know, you told me a lot of lies
Something told me, I was going to fall straight down inside
This hell won't let me breathe so fine
But I can't allow you to fall on the ground
I would prefer to lose my head

If you believed in my eyes
We would've had another day
And you just see me inside
We would have had another day

And I don't know, why somebody else is in your head
And it makes me feel, I'm getting crazy in my brain

If you believed in my eyes
I swear we would have another day
I swear we would have another day
I swear we would have another day
I swear we would have another day
