

Michelle Featherstone, Always for you

You were drowning and I picked you up and set you free I was fading and you breathed the life back into me can I be sure this is what I've been looking for
'cause I'm dying to meet you and I'm trying to reach you as of yet we've not met but I'm here waiting always for you you were trembling and I held your hand so close to me and I was crying and you whispered that you'd rescued me I planned a day when I see you come my way
'cause I'm dying to meet you
and I'm trying to reach you
but I'm here waiting always for you I can't wait to sleep so I can always see your face and I hate to wake up 'cause you're gone without a trace can I be sure this is what I've been looking for
and I'm trying to reach you
but I'm here waiting always yeah I'm dying to meet you
and I'm trying to reach you
