

Michelle Shocked, God Is A Real Estate Developer

God is a real estate developer
With offices around the nation
They say one day he'll liquidate
His holdings up on High
I say it's all speculation

He may be an absentee landlord
This may be a low rent universe
Well the roof may need repairs
But at last the floor is there
And the rent is not due 'til the first

So save one last dance for the Saviour
When that final Hail Mary is said
Life is a dancehall
That's why we've got all those
Little angels dancing around with pinheads

The Lord Almighty, Limited
And his chosen elect
Sit on the Up on High Development Board
Quoting the Bible as they hoard
The Good Book has a new look, I suspect

So save one last dance for the Saviour
When that final Hail Mary is said
Life is a dancehall
That's why we've got all those
Little angels dancing around with pinheads

So save one last dance for the Saviour
When that final Hail Mary is said
Life is a dancehall
That's why we've got all those
Little angels dancing around with pinheads

God is a real estate developer...
