

Michelle Williams, Have You Ever

(speaking)

I know someone whose love you can totally depend on Have ever thought you needed anyone this much before?
Thats right, listen

So youre finally tired of the friends that you admire Spreading love that leaves you empty Promises without a guarantee Tell me what are you gonna do cause its really all up to you Make up your mind today
Please share

I know who you can go to He'll never let you down
And His love you can depend on forever and ever

Chorus:
Have you ever Needed anyone this much before?
Did ever
think that itd be Jesus?
No never, never knew His love is what you have been waiting for

So you search for security love of money and what it brings thought you'd buy you some happiness but you found out it didnt last One thing I wanna say that its all His anyway between you and me oh, oh listen

I know who you can go to
He'll never let you down
forever and ever

Chorus (2x)

All of His love is for you No He wont hold back cause Hes all of that, its true (yeah, yeah)
All of His love is for you

Chorus (3x)
