

Mickey Avalon, Dipped In Vaseline

I stroll down the Ave like big Johnny Rogers
I pull tricks for a fix and tonight
I got flows for hos with low self esteem and
More for those swallow protein

The kid from the 60s stars in skin flicks and Pays the rent inch after inch
But now I get fly with lyrics
While you guys be on some queer shit

Check out the way I take a mark for
All that he's got and a whole lot more
'Cause when your drawers hit your ankles
I un'take the shank out my sock and take the bank roll

Oh shit you just got lit by an illegitimate kid out the orphanage run and shit.
Im cumin with styles you can't handle smoother than the velvet Elvis that was hanging from my mantle
So light a candle and praise yo' Lord
Mickey Avalon's some shit you can afford.

All up on the scene, dipped in Vaseline
In a mask and jeans, girl I'll smash your dreams
All up on the scene, dipped in Vaseline
In a mask and jeans girl

I'm'a constraint hotty getting saucy at the swap meet
If you want to party
Get my number and call me
From dawn to dusk I bust nuts and shoot Charlie
When you got some money then come and get yo' jollies

A Quarantine in this California dream
All up on the scene dipped in Vaseline
My foster parents told me that I could be Anything I wanted to so I became me

Mickey Avalon, the kid who runs free
Serving sucka mcs and getting paid for my delivery
I freak beats that stain yo silk sheets
Filthy on the mike like lenny bruce used to be

They had brooster in the pantry,
Howlin' like a banshee and
Even when I'm wearin' panties I stay manly

All up on the scene, dipped in Vaseline
In a mask and jeans, girl I'll smash your dreams
All up on the scene, dipped in Vaseline
In a mask and jeans girl

In the Hollywood hills,
Swallowing pills,
Tipsy off scotch whiskey,
Sniffin' blow thro hundred dolla bills.
I toast my (mostas) from coast to coast,
In penthouse suits
With out any clothes

I used to stroll to avid holes in my shoes
But now I fly first class and Bask in sun tanning booths.
Hustling gay dudes for Quaaludes,
Out by the pool,

In a baby blue bathing suit.

Waiting for Jesus to bring the juice
I was payin dues while you was playin in school
I took the whole scene over with the flow from my lips
Here's an autographed picture for yo lil sis

My days of turning tricks are behind me
Unless you got the time to wine and dine me

All up on the scene, dipped in Vaseline
In a mask and jeans, girl I'll smash your dreams
All up on the scene, dipped in Vaseline
In a mask and jeans girl

All up on the scene, dipped in Vaseline
In a mask and jeans, girl I'll smash your dreams
All up on the scene, dipped in Vaseline
In a mask and jeans girl
