

Micky Green, Shoulda

Golly what a wally I was.
As usual.
Nothing new.

But I expect there'll be no regrette
I can find the time
I feel fine

I should, I would, I coulda
I should, I would, I coulda

Tick-Tock
Tick-Tock
You've gone cuckoo like a clock
The problem is what ?

You know you do it a lot
I'm gonna change the locks.
You were my rock.
I was wrong

Move on

I said I
should, I would, I coulda
I should, I would, I coulda

So everything was alright
I finally felt alive
When I kicked you like a stone from the station to home.

Believe it or not Well you deserved what you got
You should have run
When you saw what was to come.

I said I
should, I would, I coulda
I should, I would, I coulda

I said I
should, I would, I coulda
I should, I would, I coulda
