

Midnight Fall, Watch Out For Them Girls, They'll Break Your Heart

The night's drawing closer to an end it's 4am and still, i don't wanna leave I kiss you once more and hold you closer Someone how once more turned into a half-hour longer your lips are my poison yet i'm so addicted as you kill me slowly and softer than the song i'm signing into your ear tonight

so hold me baby and let the fireworks be our light as we let each other know what deep inside

i breathe in deep and pull your body closer to mine and i let you know i need you tonight you whisper softly that you never want me to leave and i wish never had too the stars all spell our names across the moonlight sky and i could die in your arms here tonight i'll drink the hemlock and let myself remain on the floor of your dimly lit basement i can guess everything you think right now and i all i can say is that every thing happens for a reason and if perhaps i tucked you in and kissed you on your forehead would you ask me to sing you a bedtime song i wish i could explain this i wish i could understand this i wish i could explain myself i wish i could understand you

I'm anxious and nervous here's my chance i'll take it all my hopes and aspirations am i worth it all or just worthless
