

Miguel Bose, Town Of Gold

If the dawn is golden
And you're forced to divert your eyes
When it's over, think it over
How to reach me from your side
Will you leave in such a rush?
Leave the town of gold
But you never ever lose your direction

When the journey's over
And the dream you have realized
Getting closer, I am closer
We can share the seasons and the nights
They will go in such a rush
Gleaming town of gold
But we'll never ever lose our direction

Here's my open door
Here is my open door waiting with welcome
Raise the Summer Sun
Show me your sunny smile brighten my morning
How it will shimmer over land
And all the dreaming, dreaming
Will come true...

So your eyes are open
May questions still to ask
Can it happen? Has it happened?
It's all over before we start
Love is always such a rush
Gleaming town of gold
May we never ever lose our affection

Here's my open door
Here is my open door waiting with welcome
Raise the summer sun
Show me your sunny smile brighten my morning
How it will shimmer overland
And all the dreaming, dreaming
Will come true...

When the dawn is golden...
And the journey's over...
Oh, the dawn is golden...
