

Miho Hatori, Ecdysis

Shame step, shame step,shame steps on me

Sentimental candies
I put five them in too many in my mouth
My body feels some sourness
Start to see a sight
I've never known
Finally, gravity
Starts to fall my mind
Every moment I see is changing

So I ride my bicycle
My clock is now letting time go
And green forests
start breezing deep way way in my sunlight
They start dancing
like seven colors of waterfalls
100 mimicries

Higher
Take me higher

Shame step, Shame step, shame steps on me
