

Mika, Underwater

Bursting in a blood red sky
A slow landslide
and the world we leave behind there's a way to lose your head and disappear and not return again...

When I fall to my feet
Wearin' my heart on my sleeve
All I see just amazes

You are the port of my call
You shot and leavin' me raw
Now I know you're amazing

'Cause all I need
Is the love you breathe put your lips on me and I can live under water,
under water, under water!
Under water!

Bursting with a bright blue sky
A slow landslide
and the world I've left behind
there's a way to lose your head and disappear and not return again

When I fall to my feet
Wearin' my heart on my sleeve
All I see just amazes
You are the port of my call
You shot and leavin' me raw
Now I know you're amazing

'Cause all I need
Is the love you breathe
Put your lips on me and I can live under water,
under water, under water!
Under water!

Bursting with a blood red sky
A slow landslide
