

Mike Candys, LAST MAN ON EARTH (FEAT. MA

I'm getting ready on the stormy night
I brace myself for the final flight
I'm gonna get away
Far, far from here

See the stars?
They've been talking to me
I feel so strong
Now I'm ready to see
A whole new world somewhere up in the sky

So who do I run to?
When the sky comes crashing down
Who do I turn to?
When there's no one to be found?

I'm the last man
Just the last man
I'm the last man on this earth

The time has come for me to leave this place
In ninety-three seconds I'm in outer space
Erase the past 'cause the future starts tonight

I'm gonna keep moving till I touch the sky
And I ain't gonna stop till I'm satisfied
I'm gonna get alive, get alive far away

So who do I run to?
When the sky comes crashing down
Who do I turn to?
When there's no one to be found?

Now I'm the last man on this earth
Just the last man on this earth
I'm the last man on this earth, on this earth

Who do I turn to?
When there's no one to be found?
So who do I run to?
When the sky comes crashing down
Comes crashing down
On this earth
