

Mikoto, Gut Check

This mirror reflects more than you see.
Your beliefs melt away as the day ends.
Are you in or are you out? Goonies never say die.
Its a showcase of, and so plain to see...
Rewind and retract once more, I'm doing this for me.
No holding back, is what it means to me, no giving up,
I'm doing this for me.
Keeping a level head takes more than just gritting your teeth.
Ideals we get, as popularity grows.
Is this the conflict that ignites you?
You know, the tightest noose is the one you tie yourself.
Don't blink, you could miss it.
Are you in or are you out? Goonies never say die.
Its a showcase of, and so plain to see.
Rewind and retract once more, I'm doing this for me.
No holding back is what it means to me
No giving up, I'm doing this for me.
Keeping a level head takes more than just gritting your teeth.
This takes more than just flipping on and off.
Regenerate, reinvent.
