

Milk & Honey, Didi

On a dark desert day in a land far away
you took my heart - that's the price that i pay.
Why'd you hurt me this way, wish you'd come back and stay.
Just remember the promise we made.

You used to be my one and only lover.
You went away and left me for another.
Now you wanna come back to me

You tell me we should get together.
I tell you no no, never ever.
Baby can't you see now I'm free
(both) uh didi didi

you took my heart - that's the price that i pay.
Why'd you hurt me this way, wish you'd come back and stay.
Just remember the promise we made.
