

Milky Chance, Feeling For You

It's been a long time since I've seen the colors
Of the sunrise breaking at the dawn
It's been a long night on the road to nowhere
But you found me somewhere in the dark
You caught me in the moonlight
Pulled me up from under
Now I'm left to wonder
Looking for your love
Falling through the hours
Stuck inside my blue mind
Never wanna lose time
Never get enough

I don't know what it means
But I know you're the only reason
I can't escape the feeling
I'm feeling for you
Never fell so in deep
And now I'm starting to believe it
I can't escape the feeling
I'm feeling for you

I talk to streetlights down on every corner
But they don't know where I have to go
So I listen to your voice
In a world so full of noise
One thing I hear
Please don't disappear
You caught me in the moonlight
Pulled me up to wonder
How you pulled me under
Looking for your love
Falling through the hours
Stuck inside my blue mind
Never wanna lose time
Never get enough

I don't know what it means
But I know you're the only reason
I can't escape the feeling
I'm feeling for you
Never fell so in deep
And now I'm starting to believe it
I can't escape the feeling
I'm feeling for you

I don't know, I don't know
What it means, what it means
I don't know, I don't know
What it means, what it means

I don't what it means
I'm feeling for you
Never fell so in deep
I'm feeling for you
