

Mimi Webb, Lonely In Love

I'm tried of trying
Tryna put on a show and when the curtains close
Why, why should I ask
Where you went out that night?
Guess, it's my deepest night

'Cause when you hold my hand, you ain't holding it like you did
Am I slipping through your fingers? I don't understand
How we both ended up like this
Right here

Lonely in love
Lonely in love
Can you just stay one night?
Tell me you change your mind
I'm waiting on
For you to waken up
Guess it's just dumb of me
I never ever wanna be lonely in love

I don't want much, I just need you to say
That these things don't just change
Baby, I was
Wearing your sweater
To make nights like these better
Now all I do is question forever

When you hold my hand, you ain't holding it like you did
Am I slipping through your fingers? I don't understand
How we both ended up like this

Lonely in love
Lonely in love
Can you just stay one night?
Tell me you change your mind
I'm waiting on
For you to waken up
Guess it's just dumb of me
I never ever wanna be lonely in love

After all of this time that we spent
You're the truth, you're the one that I need
You're the best, and I'm begging, oh, please
Oh, please

Lonely in love
Lonely in love
Can you just stay one night?
Tell me you change your mind
I'm waiting on
For you to waken up
Guess it's just dumb of me
I never ever wanna be lonely in love
