

Mindy McCready, If I Feel Your Hand

I knew this would happen sooner or later I'd run into you finally I'm happy but I can say I've missed you too

don't ask me to dance
I don't think I'm quite where you are just yet please understand
I'm not ready to take that step if I do I'm sure I will regret

if I feel your hand I'll want more than that
more than I can stand I'll want it all back
whatever there was
all bad or good
I'd bring back your love if I only could
oh I begging you please understand
if I feel your hand

I've here before told myself I won't go through that again one touch I was yours and I felt something perfect again so don't ask me to try and pretend

if I feel your hand
all bad or good
I'd bring back our love
oh I'm begging you please understand

oh
I'll never know why you pulled away each time I see you, I'll be afraid

if I feel your hand
