

Minelli, Confused

Looks like danger to my eyes You're just here tryna push my limit bed of roses, paradise yeah I know what you do you're telling me you're needing me no magic when we touch everything you think I wanna hear don't make me blush and even though you're good with words, I'm never satisfied will I ever be your special one? cuz you got me so oh oh oh confused...
