

Miss Kittin & The Hacker, 1000 Dreams

A new day, a new dream
Waking up, but still sleeping
All the time remembering
Pictures of your 1000 dreams
Again and again and again and again the same dream...
Is it too exhausting
To be in the wondering?
Don't you know it will repeat
Until you find the meaning?
Again and again and again and again the same dream...
Another chance, take a break
Face to face, big escape
Rewind and sublime
1000 dreams to reach the one
Again and again and again and again the same dream...
A new day, a new dream
Waking up but still sleeping
All the time remembering
Pictures of your 1000 dreams
