

Miss Kittin & The Hacker, Ray-Ban

Opening the window
To feel the wind blow
Is the sky grey or blue?
I see the world through you
Behind my Ray-Ban...
A screen between the world and I
I only show what I want
The sun is too strong
Are my eyes grey or blue?
You can't see me but I can see you
Behind my Ray-Ban...
A screen between the world and I
Protection on the go
And a vision in stereo
Is my mood grey or blue?
I see the future through you
Behind my Ray-Ban...
