

Miss May I, Unconquered

If it's us vs the world
Then I will remain
The last man standing
So bring on the pain

Unconquered
Unconquered
Unconquered
Unconquered

I walk alone through a crowd of eyes
I see a vision of red, terrified
It goes from bad to worse
If every blessing is a curse
Then how will I survive, I survive

The walls are closing in
What's on the other side yea
It's been so long since I've felt alive felt alive yea

Maybe
I'm the only one who can save me
From the monster I've become
Lately
All these ghosts still chase me
And there's nowhere left to run

Back from the dead
Unholy spirits black out the sun
How could it end like this?
Staring down the barrel of a loaded gun

So heavy
The world around me
So heavy
Can't let it crush me

Maybe
I'm the only one who can save me
From the monster I've become
Lately
All these ghosts still chase me

The only way out is through
And the sun that stops the flood
Is still inside of you

Pull the noose from your neck and rise
Fear no longer
The soul is stronger

(Unconquered)
If it's us vs the world
(Unconquered)
Then I will remain
(Unconquered)
The last man standing
(Unconquered)
So bring on the pain

This life is mine for the taking
So bring on the pain

This life is mine for the taking
And I will remain

Maybe
I'm the only one who could save me
Lately

And the sun that stops the flood
Is still inside of you
