

Missing Persons, Now Is The Time For Love

Terry Bozzio)

You're so seriously in need
You're so seriously in need
We're going nowhere not convinced there's something wrong
As if it's all a dream
Try to deny the facts and truth and understanding aren't as Close as they seem
We lock ourselves inside a mask of apprehension
To black all we see
Confused disguises dreams we hide behind not knowing
What we believe

Now is the time
Now is the time for love
Now is the time
Now is the time for love-for love

You're so seriously in need
You're so seriously in need
We play with reasons to delay the situations
That could bring us love
Life is too short-life holds no answers to the questions which we won't ask enough
We stand before ourselves and look beyond the mirror
Shatter all the past
We can awaken hopeful dreaming of a future that will Bring love at last

Now is the time
(I really mean it when I say to you)
now is the time for love
(love is the answer)
Now is the time
(much more than anything we say or do)
Now is the time for love
(we've got to live)
For love-for love-for love-for love
For love
