

Mitchel Musso, You didn't have to walk away

i dont know how to let this go and i dont really want to know what its like with out you in this life your voice is breaking through the air i can hear but i dont care whats the matter anyway tonight?
but everywhere i go im reminded of everything thats going on and something isnt right i can read the signs i know that something's wrong but you didnt have to walk away
no you didnt have to walk away
you didnt have to walk away from me tonight
no you didnt have to walk away
you didnt have to walk away
no you didnt have to walk away from me tonight i dont wanna be left with all broken pieces i as they fall if there was more time i would had this all away but everywhere i go im reminded of everything thats going on and soemthing isnt right i can read the signs i know that something's wrong
but you didnt have to walk away
no you didnt have to walk away
you didnt have to walk away from me tonight no you didnt ave to walk away
you didnt have to walk away
no you didnt have to walk away from me tonight
time means everything
everything
time means everything
everything to me but you didnt have to walk away [no you didnt now] no you didnt have to walk away [ no you didnt no] you didnt have to walk away from me tonight [didnt have]
[to walk away]
no you didnt have to walk away [no you didn't now]
you didnt ave to walk away [no you didnt no]
no you you didnt ave to walk away from me tonight [didnt have to walk away] didn't ave to walk away [no]
no you didnt have to walk away[no you didnt no] you didnt have to walk away from me tonight [you didnt have]
[to walk away]
no you didnt have to walk away [no you didn't now]
you didnt ave to walk away [no you didnt no]
no you you didnt ave to walk away from me tonight [didnt have to walk away]
