

Mixed Emotions, I Never Give Up

Take a look into my eyes and say your love has flown

Tell me that your heart has turned to stone.
Tell me once again you're sure and tellin me no lies

Tell me that your feelin's onthe roam.
So I can see you lie to me

Why you gonna hide all your tears deep inside?
Baby
can't you say we are gonna find a way

And we'll start again like we did our first day?
Let me find a word to make you come and stay.

No
no
no
I'll never give up loving you

No matter what I have to do
I'll never give up loving you.
No
no
no
I'm always gonna fight for you

One day you're walking in my shoes and so I'll never turn you loose.
And maybe at the end of my time I'd rather give up hope you will be mine

I'll never give up
girl
I'll never give up
girl.

What you gonna say to me when love has gone astray

Tell me that you want a new born day.
Let me see your smile when love is running through your mind

Let me see you know that you are mine.
So I know you love me so

Come on baby
take me like you just want to do.
So don't resist let me show you how love is Gonna show you how I can make your world spin.

Let me find a way to get under yor skin.
