

Miyavi, Dear my friend tegami wo kaku yo

Dear my friend look at the sky
Now we're staring up at the same sky
Even though we're far apart we're in the same world, in the same time
Just like the sky we're looking upon
If only we're connected in some way somewhere
Dear my friend if I could ride on this cloud
Would it lead me to your city?
Say hello.
I tried yelling your name loudly towards the sky
I really want to see you
But I can't see you not even in my dreams
Just like the bird
If only I was free to fly in the vast sky
What might happen
Even though I don't have wings
Instead I'll use these arms to hold on to you
So strongly that even the birds would be envious
Dear my friend, if I could catch on to those clouds
Would it carry me to your side?
And then maybe one day if we meet I'll hold on to your hand tight then never letting go never letting go
