

Miz, Bittersweet

Bittersweet

Another day, another lie
No matter how I try
So many enemies to kill but I just love the thrill
Thoughts are running though my head
Oh, can I be your instead
This is not supposed to be
Don't walk away from me
All this time I've been beside you
Oh, all this time I've been around
I'm cryin', I'm dyin' for you
It's violent yet tasteful
So hard but it's true
Over and over is the promise we make
My bittersweet mistake
Let me know what's deep inside and it will be alright
Leave your worries for today and it will be ok
All this time I've been beside you
Oh, all this time I've been around
I'm cryin', I'm dyin' for you
It's violent yet tasteful
So hard but it's true
Over and over is the promise we make
My bittersweet
My bittersweet mistake, mistake, mistake...
Over and over is the promise we make
It's violent yet tasteful
So hard but it's true
Over and over is the promise we make
My bittersweet
It's my mistake
