

Mobius Band, The Loving Sounds Of Static

this world's not right
it's a losing fight
and this music's not what you want it's a business now
there's ins and outs
and the life you had you'll lose somehow

you know you had, once a jest
anything that hasn't passed the test by 1996
yeah that's not part of it

you keep it to yourself and no one knows the deal but you're not alone
that's just a show
and gold in a cross
some spoken thoughts
they rust a lot
the life we had
that's over now

anything that hasn't passed the test by 1996
