Moby, Harbour

(f/ Sinead O'Connor)

the street bears no relief when everybody's fighting the street bears no relief with light so hot and binding

I run the stairs away and walk into the nighttime the sadness flows like water and washes down the heartache and washes down the heartache

my heart is full my heart is wide the saddest song to play on the strings of my heart the heat is on its own the roof seems so inviting a vantage point is gained to watch the children fighting so lead me to the harbour and float me on the waves sink me in the ocean to sleep in a sailor's grave to sleep in a sailor's grave

my heart is full my heart is wide, so wide the saddest song to play on the strings of my heart
