Modern Day Zero, It Don't Matter

It's all been sold
It's all been told
But do look close
See things unfold

(Pre-Chorus)
It don't matter
It don't matter
I hate everything
It don't matter
It don't matter

Shape to the mold
Do what you're told
But do look close
See things unfold

(Pre-Chorus)

I can't save this

(Chorus)
Facing life seems too far gone
And my hands are shaking
I'm pushing bullets through a gun
It don't matter
It don't matter

Watching and waiting
For consent to bleed
Twelve nightmares away from my sanity
This echoing silence ringing my head
Turns me to violence when I choose peace instead

(Chorus)

It don't matter (x2)

(Chorus)
