

Modern English, Just a Thought reckless I feel, reckless I feel it's something ideal, it's something ideal space between the thoughts and acts a mind ? see us ? pay the way who knowingly mowed us who seemingly owed us

? cast aside
from the wreckage to the tide feel the touch of excitement while adrenaline ?
oh ?
they were too young
they were too young

use your knowledge
use your knowledge
feel the words
feel the words

a time to act now
a time to ?
now relax boys
now relax

just a thought, just a thought
just a thought, just a thought
just a thought, just a thought
just a thought, just a thought
just a thought, just a thought
for you to face
just a thought, just a thought
for you to face
just a thought, just a thought
for you to face
just a thought

? cast aside
feel the touch of excitement while
adrenaline ?
oh ?
they were too young
they were too young
they were too young
they were too young
