

Modern Talking, When the sky rainde fire

Baby I feel guilty, there's no reason why
Oh baby cause I promised you, love will never lie
Oh I send a wish to heaven
I can't stand the pain inside
This moment tells a story
And I'm stronger than my pride
It was the night - when the sky rained fire
(When the sky rained fire)
It was the night - when the stars begin to fall
It was the night - when I lose my hearts desire
It was the night, baby - when I missed your call
Music is the answer - baby, if you cry
Can't you tell me, where love goes - when it dies
And I knew it's all or nothing
It was not a love affair
Lay your cards here on the table
If you need me I'll be there
