

Modest Mouse, The Good Times Are Killing Me

The good times are killing me
Here we go!

Got dirt, got air, got water and I know you can carry on
Shrug off shortsighted false excitement and oh what can I say?
Have one, have twenty more "one mores" and oh it does not relent
The good times are killing me

Kick butt buzz-cut dickheads who didn't like what I said
The good times are killing me
Jaws clenching tight we talked all night, oh but what the hell did we say?
The good times are killing me
The good times are killing me
The good times are killing me

Fed up with all that LSD
Need more sleep than coke or methamphetamines
Late nights with warm, warm whiskey
I guess the good times they were all just killing me

Got dirt, got air, got water and I know you can carry on
The good times are killing me
Enough hair of the dog to make myself an entire rug
The good times are killing me

Have one, have twenty more "one mores" and oh it does not relent
The good times are killing me
Shit-kicker city slickers who all wanted me dead
The good times are killing me

Get sucked in and stuck in late nights with more folks that I don't know
The good times are killing me
The good times are killing me
