

Modest Mouse, Willful Suspension Of Disbelief

Everywhere everywhere everywhere
Everywhere everywhere everywhere
Everywhere everywhere everywhere
It's all so plain, it's all a plan,
It's all so plain almost everywhere,
The sky, it doesn't ever end,
The air just gets much thinner further up.
You could keep diggin' down and down,
A thousand graves down,
Without turnin' around or finding hell,
You find you're digging up again.
Everywhere everywhere everywhere
Willful Suspension of Disbelief
Everywhere everywhere everywhere
Willful Suspension of Disbelief
