Modest Mouse, Willful Suspension Of Disbelief

Everywhere everywhere everywhere Everywhere everywhere everywhere Everywhere everywhere everywhere It's all so plain, it's all a plan, It's all so plain almost everywhere, The sky, it doesn't ever end, The air just gets much thinner further up. You could keep diggin' down and down, A thousand graves down, Without turnin' around or finding hell, You find you're digging up again. Everywhere everywhere everywhere Willful Suspension of Disbelief Everywhere everywhere everywhere Willful Suspension of Disbelief
