

Modwheelmood, Anyone

No matter what I'm trying to be
No matter what they want from me
It could be anyone, to bring yourself to life again
No-one

Just another cigarette
(Just another cigarette)
What it takes to stop and I'll go

Seated here all the time
No matter what you're trying to be
Rest of me makes a sound
Round and round and round and round

All it seems to be
It's time to go
(Just another cigarette)

Could it be anyone
To bring yourself to life again?
No-one
Could it be anyone
To bring yourself to life again?
No-one

There's a song to say goodbye
You hide inside until it sleeps
Tell me now
If it's allowed to dream the past and try to make it mine

Fall to our feet and I can't control
(Just another cigarette)

Could it be anyone
To bring yourself to life again?
No-one
Could it be anyone
To bring yourself to life again?
No-one

Well there's a chance to be alone here by my side
I'm gonna let it drive
If rolling down the hill is such a thrill and I
It's just a homicide

Could it be anyone
To bring yourself to life again?
No-one
Could it be anyone
To bring yourself to life again?
No-one
