

Modwheelmood, Scene

in your trouble
nowhere to be found
piece, a bubble
where everybody else is doing better than you do
why they looking at you no one seems to take the time to ask you how you're doing do you want to grab a coffee
maybe grab a bite

it's the scene
we don't fit in
it's the scene
we don't fit in

i'm not talking
i'm not happy

it's just another
night out in the city
don't know where you're going no one seems to be all right and i'll ask you how you're doing
do you want to grab a coffee
maybe grab a bite

it's the scene
we don't fit in
it's the scene
we don't fit in
it's the scene
we don't fit in
it's the scene
we don't fit in

nowhere to be found
