

Moe Bandy, Someone That I Can Forget

I come here tonight to discover a lover that I'd never known
Someone to talk to and smile at and laugh with till I take her home

I come here to find me a stranger somebody that I never met
Someone to love me then leave me alone but someone that I can forget (steel)
You might say it's not unexcepted neglected after being your man
You'd left too many mem'ries to live with and I'm forgetting the best way I can

I come here to find me a stranger...
Yes I need someone that I can forget
