

MOKS, Otherwise (ft. James Arthur)

Take a deep breath and listen as it feels like we've fallen into deep I follow your decision, your prediction and now I have to leave on your behalf and we go on, on our own Oh, can we ever be the same again
Oh, I don't know but I don't care

Cause you chose otherwise
you took an other turn Oh you chose otherwise
and now you have to feel the burn
and now you gotta learn
cause you chose otherwise
You chose otherwise
You chose otherwise
You chose otherwise
You chose otherwise

You chose otherwise

You will see what you missing
But by then I'll be back on my feet
.. your reasons
All reasons you had to make me leave
on your behalf and we go on, on our own
Oh, can we ever be the same again
Oh, I don't know but I don't care

you took an other turn
and now you have to feel the burn
You chose otherwise
You chose otherwise
You chose otherwise
You chose otherwise

You chose otherwise
